

I am opposed to any further lossening of ownership restrictions for broadcast outlets. The airwaves are a public resource and should be managed as such. Concentration of ownership not only detrimental to political discourse, but also produces homogenized, boring entertainment,